Annual Grade 4 Tree Decorating

Thanks to Mrs. E. Erickson and the grade four class for doing a great job of decorating the school Christmas tree for the holiday season. It was very festive and put everyone in the spirit of the season!

MAKING A difference

SRC members paid a visit to the Personal Care Home to provide them with Christmas cards that the younger students made with their older partners on Buddy Craft Day.

L/R: Jenna Anaka, Pauline, Emerson Strykowski, Sonia, Avery Franklin.

Thank you to Mrs. Janice Yanke for donating this beautiful "Every Child Matters" Christmas bulb to don our Christmas tree in the front entrance.

Donation to Breakfast Cafe

A huge thank you to The Kelvington 4H Beef Club for giving the donations they received at the Festival of Trees to the Breakfast Cafe. Miss Hanson gratefully accepted the donation from 4H members (L/R) Rebecca, Amber and Hailey Spray. Your generosity is greatly appreciated!

Season of Giving

The grade 6 class had the residents of the Personal Care Home on their minds this holiday season and made some crafts for each of the residents to pass along the spirit of Christmas. Well done grade 6!

RIBBON SKIRT/SHIRT DAY

Celebrate YOU!

Ribbon skirts have many different meanings to different people but when an Indigenous person wears a skirt, they are using their clothing to demonstrate the strength and beauty of Indigenous people and culture. It shows the world who they are and represents their identity as an Indigenous person.

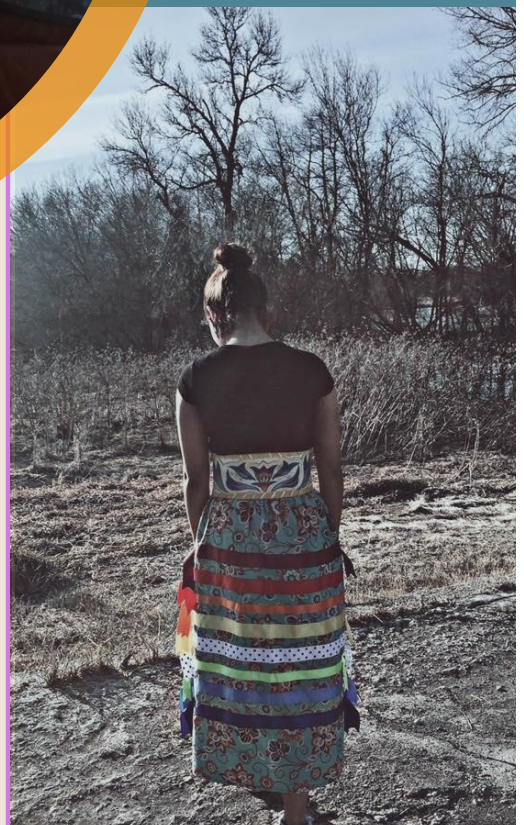

Think of how you can represent your identity in your clothing - that could be your culture, your personality, your gender identity, or anything else that represents who you are as an individual.

"We ribbon up for healing and strength. Our skirts keep us grounded and connected to Mother Earth. Wearing our skirts shows that we are sacred, we are medicine and we are still here.

Stay visible!"

- Healing Stitches, Ribbon Skirt Designer

To honour this day, we invite staff and students to wear clothing that represents the same message for them; to wear something that shows the world who you are.
